DEDICATION

MISS MARGARET KAYE HELM

To one who has so willingly given of herself to others, whose spirit and loyalty to the Seniors have been a constant inspiration, we, the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Seventy dedicate this Annual Lighthouse Yearbook to Miss Margaret Kaye Helm.

Tis the human Touch in this world
that counts,
The touch of your hand
Which means far more to the fainting
heart
Than shelter and bread and wine;
For shelter is gone when the night is o'er,
And bread last only a day,
But the touch of your hand and the sound of your voice.
Sing on in the soul always".

Miss Helm graduated from Northampton County High and further continued her education at Virginia State College where she obtained her B.S. degree in Business Education. Miss Helm's hobbies are sewing, dancing, reading, and trying to help other people.

We the graduating class feel that Miss M. K. Helm deserves this honor.

SENIOR CLASS 70'

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Greetings To The Senior Class of 1970

This is a time when congratulations are in order not only to the graduates but to parents and teachers whose efforts have played a very vital role in making this accomplishment possible. My sincere congratulations are extended to all of you.

Certainly, it has been challenging and gratifying to observe your development during your high school years. Most of your time in high school was in the decade of the '60s, which appeared to have been an era of unique consequence. I commend each of you in the Graduating Class of 1970 on your diligent efforts during your five years in school as you have worked cooperatively under the supervision and guidance of your teachers.

As you depart from Northampton County High School, whatever you have selected as your profession, or vocation, strive to do your best in your endeavors. Take advantage of all opportunities. "Learn all you can about yourself and the world".

The final year in high school for you was the commencing of a new decade of adventure, a decade you will help to form. Best wishes for a pleasant and productive future.

Sincerely,

C. L. Brickhouse

C. L. Brickhouse, Principal

CLASS SONG

(Londonderry Air)

Dear Northampton County High
The time has come to say goodbye
Although we hate that we must leave you now
We'll think of you and cheerish you forever
To Northampton County High we bid our last farewell

Now as we leave
We'er filled with joy and sadness
We've reached the goals that we have striven for
Now we must go and leave behind fond memories
Of Northampton County High and friends that we have known.

Chorus

When we have gone
We'll stop and think of our dear school
Whose hallowed walls we've grown accustomed to
And we'll be true to our dear Alma Mater
Dear N.C.H., Dear N.C.H., we love you so.

CLASS POEM

THE IMPOSSIBLE DREAM

To dream the impossible dream,
To fight the unbeatable foe,
To bear with unbearable sorrow,
To run where the brave dare not go.

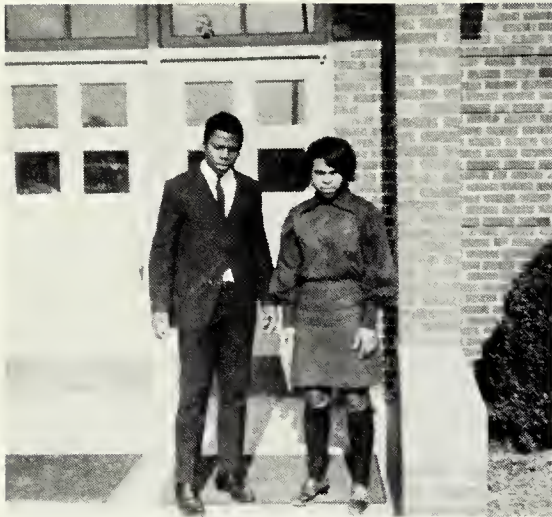

To right the unrightable wrong,
To love, care and chaste, from afar,
To try when your arms are too weary --
To reach the unreachable star.

This is my quest,
To follow that star,
No matter how far
To fight for the right
Without question or pause.
To be willing to march into hell
For a heavenly cause.
And I know if I'll only be true
To this glorious quest,
That my heart
Will lie peaceful and calm
When I'm laid to my rest.

And the world will be better for this,
That one man, scorned and covered with scars
Still strove with his last ounce of courage
To reach the unreachable star.
